Greetings from the President of Florida A&M University

Dear Football Fans:

With such a big football game happening this weekend it might sound strange to say that the big rivalry between the Rattlers and the Big Blue Tigers of Tennessee State University will have to share the spotlight with several other "big" events taking place on our campus this weekend.

As many of you know, also headlining the action is the dedication of our ultra-modern School of Pharmacy which will take place earlier in the day, as well as the selection of a new slate of alumni officers during the FAMU National Alumni Elections.

So, there will be plenty of action for every FAMUan, Tennessean or any other party interested in a variety of happenings this weekend.

Our one wish is only the best for everyone and here's hoping Coach Big Jim Williams and his rugged Rattlers will cap the day off by ending the Tiger hex and keep the victory in Bragg Stadium.

Greetings from the President of Tennessee State University

It is always a pleasure to greet the citizens of Florida and those from many sections of Tennessee and the nation, among whom are many alumni, former students, parents, and friends of our University. Whatever the outcome of the game, it will be the camaraderie and sportsmanship exhibited here that will count.

As one of the youngest in the system of Land-Grant institutions, Tennessee State has set its fast pace to the beat of the drum of "Enter to Learn, Go Forth to Serve." While recently there has been change in the format, the newer thrust of the University is a renewed emphasis upon its continued responsibility for developing educated and concerned manpower dedicated to the peaceful use of the world's resources.

Big Bad Jim vs Big Bad John

by ROOSEVELT WILSON

Tonight marks a new era in the rivalry of Florida A&M and Tennessee State University as these two perennial powers square off in Bragg Stadium.

The Rattlers will be under the leadership of "big Jim" Williams who has chartered a 2-2 record thus far this season in defeating Western Carolina and Morris Brown while losing to North Carolina A&T and Alabama State.

The visiting Big Blue Tigers of Tennessee State are coached by Big John Merritt, the only coach to hold a decisive edge against the Rattlers in the series between the two teams.

Tennessee State has won 10 games while losing only four to the Rattlers. Neither game has ended in a tie and it has not been since 1968 when the Rattlers managed to defeat the Tigers (32-13).

Rattler Coach Big Jim Williams said he has his charges as prepared as possible for Tennessee State and the game should be a hard fought, exciting contest.

"You can always expect a rough game from Tennessee State," he said "They are a physical, well-coached team that plays 60 minutes of football."

The last meeting between these two rivals is one the Rattlers would like to forget for the record books but they will want to remember it tonight. It was a year ago and Tennessee State took advantage of every Rattler miscue to romp to a 50-8 victory.

"We remember last year," has been the chant of many of the Rattlers as they went about their routines, which were not so routine in preparing for tonight's game.

Merritt has earned his reputation as being one of the biggest, baddest coaches around and has compiled an enviable record to match his reputation.

Williams is just in his first year as a college head coach but word is already out that Big Jim is just as bad as he is big.

Both football teams play the kind of football that reflects the personalities of their coaches. Tennessee State starts as its opponents from the opening whistle and never lets up until the final gun. The Rattlers are gaining the reputation as giant killers who back off from no one and will stare anyone in the eye and then whip him at his own game.

Of course, the reputations of Coaches Merritt and Williams are only football reputations and off the field they are two of the finest guys one could meet anywhere.

But few are concerned about their off-the-field personalities tonight. Folks from Tennessee State want Big Bad John and his Tigers to do it to the Rattlers again and one can bet that's what Big Bad John will be trying to do.

Tallahassee folks are counting on Big Bad Jim to set things straight since 1968 and Big Bad Jim has intentions of nothing less.

Off the field they're gentlemen. When the whistle blows tonight, though, it will be every man for himself if this fierce rivalry holds true to tradition. It'll boil down to the head-to-head confrontation between Big Bad Jim and Big Bad John.

BIG JIM

Florida A&M's football fortunes have fallen on lean times in recent years and the university reached into the ranks of its own products for the man everyone believes will mastermind the return of happy days to the Rattler gridiron.

James W. Williams, an iron-willed, All-American quarterback for the Rattlers in 1948, was named the new football coach at FAMU earlier this year, succeeding the late Clarence Montgomery.

Called "Big Jim" by his friends, Williams played four years for Florida A&M and has coached in high school and college as well as worked for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

A native of Tampa, Williams entered Florida A&M in 1942 and was the lone freshman in the starting lineup under Bill Bell. Before the end of the season he had taken over the starting quarterback-tailback job, an act unheard of for a freshman under Bell's reign.

The Rattlers went undefeated that year (9-0-0) and won the national championship.

"Big Jim" entered the army the following year and didn't rejoin the Rattlers until 1946, but when he did return, Williams took back his job as starting quarterback and led the Rattlers to a 23-7 record over the next three years. At the end of his senior year, 1948, Williams was a first team Chicago Defender All-American.

His last three years at Florida A&M were spent under Jake Gaither and the legendary Rattler coach remembers Williams as "one of the best punters and passers we ever had."

After leaving A&M, Williams returned to Tampa as a high school coach at Don Thompson High School (the name was later changed to Blake). He remained there until 1965 and during his tenure as head coach he compiled a record of 88-11-3. His Blake teams were perennial state champions or runners-up.

Williams left Blake and joined the coaching staff at Southern University at Baton Rouge, La., in 1966 but stayed only one year as coach of the defense and kickers.

The riots flared up in Tampa in 1967 and Williams was called back to help quell the disturbance . . . and he did, as an official of HEW.

When the quiet was restored to Tampa, Williams returned to the Hillsborough County School System. For the past four years he was assistant coach at the University of Tampa.

One of the first things he did after taking over this spring was to commit himself to do "all I can to return the Rattlers to their winning tradition. I am making no promises or predictions but I am going to work hard, my staff is going to work hard and the players are going to work hard to try to revive the old Rattlerism here at FAMU."

Williams is married to the former Lillian Maxey of Tampa and they have one daughter who is married and living in Dallas, Texas.

THE RATTLER COACHING STAFF

ROBERT "PETE" GRIFFIN
Defensive Coordinator

Griffin returns to the Rattler staff after a year's absence. He came to the Rattlers as head line and defensive coach for football and track coach in 1944. He was an All-American center on Florida A&M's first national championship football team in 1938. He served as head coach of the Rattlers during the 1970 season following the retirement of Jake Gaither and led FAMU to a 5-5 record. "Pete" retired following the 1970-71 school year but rejoined the staff this spring. He is a native of Columbus, Ohio, and holds the Master of Arts degree from Ohio State University. He is hailed as one of the nation's top defensive coaches.

GRIFFIN

BOBBY LANG
Linebackers

Lang is taking charge of the linebackers this season after having worked with the offensive interior line. He enters his seventh season as a member of the Rattler coaching staff. Lang was an ALL-SIAC performer during his playing days at FAMU where he earned his bachelor and masters degrees. He is assistant professor of physical education and head track coach. His track team won the SIAC championship from 1968 through 1970 and in 1968 his 440 relay team (Major Hazelton, Jim Ashcroft, Gene Milton and Nate James) became the first in history to retire the James C. Patterson Challenge Cup at the Penn Relays by winning it three consecutive years. Lang joined the FAMU staff in 1966 and is a native of Jacksonville.

LANG

DENNIS JEFFERSON
Offensive Backs

Jefferson is another product of the Florida A&M football system. He came all the way up through the Rattler system, first at FAMU High and then at the University where he played quarterback from 1954 through 1956. A 1957 graduate of FAMU, Jefferson was head coach at Stone High in Melbourne, a backfield assistant at Mississippi Valley State College for a year and head coach at Shaw University before he decided to return to the Rattler Den. Jefferson, entering his third year as a Rattler coach, threw 11 TD passes his senior year in 1956.

JEFFERSON

ROBERT "BOB" MUNGEN
Defensive Secondary

Mungen is a 1953 graduate of FAMU and during his undergraduate days played end, halfback and quarterback for the Rattlers. He is head tennis coach and assistant professor of physical education. He earned his masters at Indiana University. Prior to joining the Rattler staff, Mungen was head coach at Edward Waters College in Jacksonville, Fla., and Knoxville (Tenn.) College. He is also in charge of the freshmen and works with the varsity punters and kickers. His defensive secondaries are known for their ruggedness, speed and hard hitting. Mungen is a native of Jacksonville and is in his 12th season as a Rattler coach.

MUNGEN

COSTA "POP" KITTLES
Receivers

Another FAMU alumnus, Kittles has produced some top flight receivers. He has gained the reputation as being a specialist in developing ends. He enters his 20th season as a Rattler coach. Kittles earned All-American honors while playing end for the Rattlers in 1950. He also holds a masters from Ohio State and is an assistant professor of physical education. He is head baseball coach and has turned out perennially strong teams. Considered one of the most thorough coaches in the business, Kittles also is known for getting results in the classroom as well as on the football field or baseball diamond. He is a native of Jacksonville.

KITTLES

JAMES "BILLY" OLIVER
Offensive Line

Oliver enters his second year as a Rattler coach and scout. He was a member of the class of 49 at Florida A&M but never got the chance to play football for the Rattlers because of an injury. He has a wealth of experience, though. He coached five years at Palatka Central High School and another 10 years at Tallahassee Lincoln. Oliver was switched to his offensive assignment this season after having coached defense last year.

JOHN MERRITT

Head Coach

"Big John," as he is affectionately called, is entering his 20th season as a college head coach. During this time he has experienced but one losing season. Five times Merritt has been selected as Coach-of-the-Year by both the Pittsburgh Courier and the 100 Percent Wrong Club of Atlanta, Georgia. This highly motivated, highly successful coach has dominated and revolutionized football in the predominantly black colleges throughout the decade of the 60's. During his nine-year reign at TSU, his Tiger juggernauts have amassed three National Championships three undefeated seasons and a won-lost record of 74-12-4; eighty-two of his former players have been drafted by the Pros. While Merritt is a master organizer and problem-solver, he still manages to find time to fill numerous speaking engagements. Holder of a Master's degree, he has done further study at the University of Cincinnati.

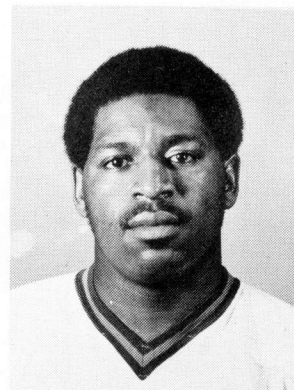

Lifetime Record: Won 140, Lost 40, Tied 6.

Laguna Colonnade Hardtop Coupe

The new 1973 Chevelle Laguna. Good news, Chevelle fans. Now you can move up to more car without leaving the make you love most. You can move up to the new 1973 Laguna.

Laguna is a new kind of Chevelle, the top of the line. It has a special front, a special rear and a special interior.

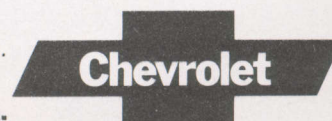

The distinctive front is made mostly of a material called urethane that resists dents and dings. Styled right into the front end is the new improved front bumper system that retracts on minor impact and helps cushion the shock.

Inside there are rich-looking fabrics, wood-grain vinyl accents, a soft-rim color-coordinated steering wheel, map pockets and other luxurious appointments.

Laguna, like other '73 Chevells, has the new Colonnade hardtop roof design, power flow-through ventilation, front disc brakes, and more rear seat leg room than ever before.

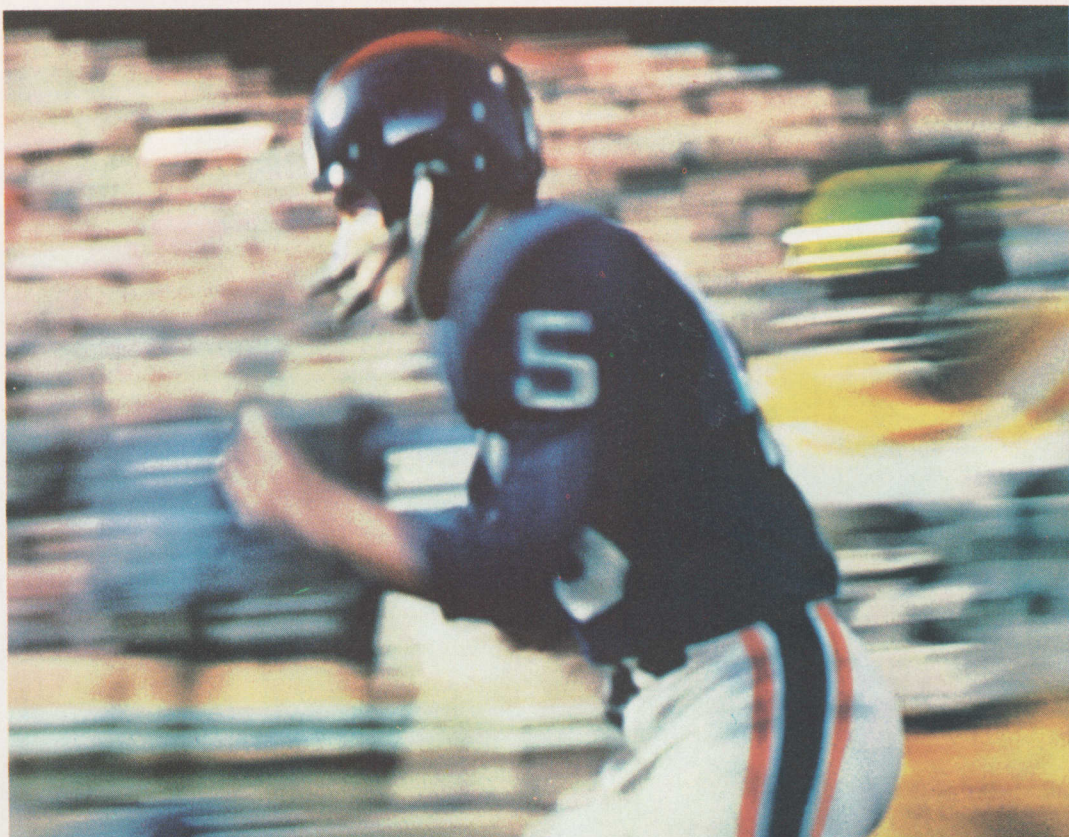

The 1973 Laguna. A new and better way to see the NCAA.

Chevrolet. Building a better way to see the U.S.A.

Enjoy the game. And remember to buckle up on the way home.

THE TENNESSEE STATE TIGERS

HYLON ADAMS
Offensive Line Coach

Hylon goes about this most difficult task with the aplomb and knowledge of a true task master; highly efficient at teaching interior line skills; fast developing the reputation of producing smart, hard hitting linemen; a highly successful high school coach prior to moving to the college level. Hylon, the junior member of the staff, keeps himself busy during the off season by working toward the doctorate degree at the University of Mississippi.

JOE W. GILLIAM
Assistant Head Coach and Director of Defense

Gilliam leads the tough-relentless Tiger defenses which are among the best in the nation year in and year out. A sound fundamentalist and disciplinarian, Joe has the reputation of turning out "finished products" for the professional ranks. In the last five years Gilliam has the distinction of sending two entire defensive secondary units into the professional ranks. Joe has authored numerous articles concerning football and is a sought-after lecturer at football clinics. Gilliam holds the Master's degree with further work at the University of Kentucky.

J. C. COFFEE
Defensive Interior Line Coach

One of the most well-liked persons in the coaching fraternity, "Ole Buddy" is a driving, demanding coach who possesses superior knowledge of body leverage and mechanics and is widely known for his "jack-of-all-trades" abilities. Coffee has a rich and varied background as both a player and a coach. In recent years he has specialized in the art of tackling. "Ole Buddy" is an outstanding teacher both in and out of the classroom. Coffee holds the Master's degree in Health, Physical Education and Recreation.

ALVIN C. COLEMAN
Director of Offensive

"Cat" is the senior member of this tremendously successful coaching staff. A scientist by training, he attacks football with this same calculating, logically sound approach. Coleman was one of the very first college coaches to use the Pro-type offensive alignments as his basic offense; today, over a decade later "Cat" has few peers at developing a passing game; quiet, dedicated and fiercely competitive Coleman has spent over a quarter of a century in college education; "Cat" has a Master's degree from the University of Michigan with additional study toward his terminal degree.

SHANNON D. LITTLE
Director of Player Personnel
Chief Scout
End & Linebacker Coach

"Chump" is probably the most consistently successful recruiter in the business today. It is through his discerning eye that the TSU roster is talent-laden year after year. As a recruiter "Little Does a Lot with a Little." The fact the Tigers are hardly, if ever caught flat-footed is largely due to Shannon's premier scouting ability; however, his talents and duties do not stop here. Little handles full coaching assignments with the Ends and Linebackers in an expert fashion. Holding a Master's degree, Little teaches a full-load of classes.

GRIDIRON NOMENCLATURE/The Language of Football

Automatic—A change of the play called in the huddle by inserting into the starting commands a key phrase, word, or number that signals a new play. Called when the quarterback feels the defense is stacked against the first play or is vulnerable in some sector.

Bootleg—A sneak sweep by the quarterback, who fakes a hand-off then takes off around end alone and with the ball concealed against his hip.

Button-hook—A pass-catching maneuver in which the receiver proceeds down the field, then circles back sharply to face the passer and receive the ball.

Clipping—A block from the rear where contact is across the back of the leg of the player blocked.

Coffin Corner—The area formed by the goal line and the side line. A punt that goes out of bounds in this area, usually inside the 10-yard line, is called a "coffin corner kick."

Draw—A trap play in which the quarterback lures in defensive linemen by dropping back with the ball. When they are screened to the outside, the quarterback, or a back to whom he has handed off, takes the ball up the gap cleared by the onrushing defenders.

Fair Catch—An intent by a player by raising his arm not to advance a free kick. A player thus signaling cannot run with the ball nor can he be tackled.

Flip-Flop—The practice on offense of moving players from one side of the center to the other depending on whether "Formation right" or "Formation left" is called in the huddle.

"I" Formation—An attacking formation in which all four backs line up in a straight line behind the center. Usually one back will move out to a slot or wing position. This provides a balanced attack to either side with minimum advance notice to the defense.

Linebacker—A defensive player stationed just behind his line.

Monster—A floating linebacker, positioned either in or out of the line, on either side, or in any spot. His purpose is to confuse the opposition, varying his station and tactics from play to play.

Naked Reverse—A late-starting change-of-direction play, where, after large-scale initial flow of motion in one direction, the ball winds up in the possession of a back who goes in the other direction without blockers or interference.

Red Dog—When a linebacker leaves his position and crashes through the opposing line into the rival backfield to put pressure on the passer or to break up a play before it gets started. Also called "shooting the gap," "blitz," etc.

Roll-out—A sweeping run by the quarterback who, instead of dropping straight back on getting the ball, swings out in a wide arc to one side or another, ready to run or pass as the situation demands.

Shotgun—A spread-type attacking formation in which the quarterback lines up deep instead of under center, and the other backs are widely dispersed. It's an effective passing set-up, and disconcerting on running plays when the defense isn't prepared.

Slot—The gap left when an end is moved out from the tackle on his side. A back stationed in this position is called a slot-back or slot-man. When the back is positioned outside the end he is called a wingback.

Tight end—An offensive end who lines up close to the tackle. When he lines up some distance out, he's called a "split end."

Trap—A maneuver in which the defensive lineman is permitted to come charging through and is blocked by surprise in the backfield. The play then goes through his vacated position.

RATTLER BROADCAST DUO—Litter, Rock

The Florida A&M University Rattler Radio Network is again being aired this year and again Independent Life has agreed to sponsor the popular series that has now expanded into Georgia.

The man behind the network is producer Allan Margolis, president of WMBM in Miami, the network anchor station. Margolis is in his second year as producer of the network and has visions of expanding throughout the south-east.

In addition to WMBM, other stations on the network are WBOP, Pensacola; WERD, Jacksonville; WOKB, Orlando; WTNT, Tallahassee; WTRL, Bradenton; WTUF, Thomasville, Ga. and WSOK, Savannah, Ga.

There are two new voices behind the mike this fall, in play-by-play announcer Ed Litter and color analyst Al Rock. Litter, a senior communications major at Florida State University, has two years of broadcast experience, working with FSU baseball and basketball and the Ft. Lauderdale native is pursuing a career in sportscasting.

Rock, who just graduated from FAMU in August, is presently a sales trainee in Atlanta. He knows all the Rattlers well, having worked closely with them as the FAMU statistician for the past three years.

The network will broadcast live all of the Rattler football games, both at home and on the road.

PERRY ELECTED PRESIDENT SALGCU

Florida A&M University president Dr. Benjamin L. Perry, Jr., has become the first black to be elected president of the Southern Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities (SALGCU).

Dr. Perry, who had previously served on the executive committee of SALGCU, was elected during the annual meeting of the association in New Orleans recently. He will be replacing Florida State University president Stanley Marshall who served as president for 1971-72.

Dr. Perry's first act as president was to invite the SALGCU to hold their next meeting in Tallahassee. The invitation was accepted and the association will meet in Tallahassee on October 1, 1973.

As president, Dr. Perry will preside over all meetings during the next year, be responsible for calling meetings of the executive committee and work with the secretary of the association in planning next year's program.

The SALGCU serves as a cohesive force for a special segment of public higher education. It acts as a catalyst to bring the collective strength of the membership to bear on pressing educational issues which concerns each member. It also seeks to focus attention on the vast contributions State Universities and Land Grant Colleges have made to the nation.

Special emphasis is placed on the education of disadvantaged, curriculum revision, academic structure and university governance.

Dr. Perry is also president of the Florida Association of Colleges and Universities which includes all religious, non-religious, public and private, senior and community colleges in the state. His domain as president of the SALGCU includes 36 institutions in the southern states.

NROTC DEDICATION SET

Formal Dedication ceremonies for Florida A&M University's new Naval Reserve Officers Training (NROTC) unit have been scheduled for Nov. 8 at FAMU's Lee Hall auditorium.

FAMU became one of only five predominately black universities in the country to offer a Naval ROTC program when the unit began operations on Sept. 1.

Some 45 Midshipmen have since been inducted into the program, which is under the direction of Cmdr. Benjamin T. Hacker.

Scheduled to speak at the dedication is Rear Adm. Samuel Gravely, of Washington, D.C., Commander of U.S. Naval Communications.

Gov. Reubin Askew is scheduled to speak at a luncheon immediately following the dedication in FAMU's Grand Ballroom.

SOCIOLOGY DEPARTMENT RECEIVES $57,600 GRANT

Special grant funding recently approved for Florida A&M University's sociology department should serve as an enticement for more students to enter the field of social welfare.

Dr. Charles U. Smith, FAMU sociology chairman, said a $57,600 addition to the department's renewed Social Rehabilitative Services grant would provide $1,200-a-year stipends for 48 students.

The money for the student stipends is part of an overall $342,679 federal grant awarded to the sociology department through Florida's Division of Family Services.

Smith said more FAMU students would be encouraged to enter the social welfare program now that financial assistance is available. In the past, he said, many interested students were siphoned off into other fields where grants or loans were more easily obtained.

Federal funds have been, in the past, limited to social welfare students at the graduate level, Mrs. Warner said.

However, Smith said there had been "a shift in emphasis" among social welfare educators and agencies employing social workers. It was once thought you had to have a master's degree in social work, but now, they're finding many jobs can be handled by persons with an undergraduate degree."

What the change means for students, according to Mrs. Warner, is that graduates of an accredited four-year program like FAMU's will find more jobs opening up to them.

The stipends will go to qualified juniors and seniors, including transfer students, who are majoring in social welfare and plan to pursue their major as a career choice after graduation.

Students in the FAMU program major in sociology and attack a minor in social welfare.

New Pharmacy Building Dedicated

The facilities we dedicate today are the culmination of a massive joint effort in which many among our administration, faculty, and students participated in a most exemplary manner. To us, this achievement is a dream come true - a dream of providing a modern teaching facility and a conducive physical learning environment for quality training of today's pharmacist practitioners-to-be. It is a dream come true in the form of expanded education opportunity for students of all races and creeds but particularly for Black students and those from low-income families.

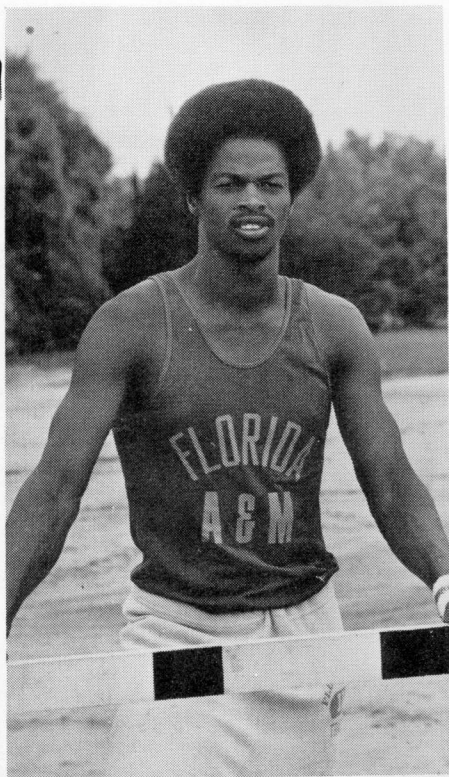

It represents a new beginning for a young School of Pharmacy which today comprises a vital national resource. It, too, represents the closing of one of the most trying chapters in the history of a School of Pharmacy determined to survive and to grow despite overwhelming odds.

Thanks to this moment, the FAMU School of Pharmacy is and shall remain a leader in pharmaceutical education in our state and nation. We cherish your sharing this dedication with us and will do our best to see that your visit is, indeed, an unforgettable affair.

Special thanks are due Former Dean Hurd M. Jones, Jr., who had the vision to take the first giant step toward this accomplishment; Kenneth Davis, who served as Chairman of the Building Committee; Robert S. Scarbough and James L. Day, who provided major assistance over the past year; President B. L. Perry, Jr., who assisted in obtaining Federal and State funding in his prior position as Director of Contracts and Grants and who encouraged us all of the way; the W. K. Kellogg Foundation for its financial support, which made possible more thorough followup on construction activities by my office; the National Institutes of Health, without whose major financial participation this dream would have evolved into a nightmare; and to my wife, Clarice, for the many lonely nights and frustrations she suffered throughout the duration of the construction of the new facility.

Robinson Tells His Story

Rey Robinson Back at Florida A&M
...sprinter missed race in Olympics

Reynaud Robinson may not be the invisible

Reynaud Robinson may not be invisible, but you couldn't prove it by any of the 12 or so newsmen who have tried to contact him since his return to the Florida A&M University campus three weeks ago.

Robinson, one of two U.S. Olympic track team sprinters who were eliminated after failing to show up for their race, returned to Tallahassee to register for the fall term.

Reporters were waiting anxiously for the junior health and physical education major, but none could get at him.

Robinson, a junior health and physical education major—left no address with the registrars office or with Coach Bobby Lang, his track mentor at FAMU, or with his father, Booker Robinson of Lakeland. Nor did he return any of the many telephone calls made to him.

And if his fellow students at FAMU knew his whereabouts, they weren't telling.

"Rey dosen't want to be bothered," several of them said.

However last week, the elusive Robinson agreed to a taped interview with FAMU Sports Information Director Roosevelt Wilson for the FAMU Public Affairs Radio.

In the interview, Robinson told of his feelings on that fateful Thursday, Aug. 28 in Munich, Germany, when he and teammate Eddie Hart of Pittsburgh lost their chance for an Olympic Gold Medal.

"I was mad," Robinson said in the interview.

"This kind of thing is just not supposed to happen . . . I put the blame on Coach (Stan) Wright," he said.

"We (himself and his teammates Hart and Robert Taylor) had run the first rounds in the morning," Robinson continued. "Hart and I were to run again in the second heat and Taylor in the fifth that afternoon, so we went back to the village.

"I went back to the training room; Hart and Taylor went to their own rooms," he said.

Robinson said he saw coach Wright in the training room and asked him what time he'd be running the next round.

Robinson said his coach informed him he'd run at 6:15 p.m.

"That seemed kind of strange to be running so late," Robinson said. "It gets pretty cold over there late in the evenings."

Nevertheless, Robinson said he believed the coach and did not question the time he'd been given.

Robinson said he later rounded up Hart and Taylor, and they walked with him to ABC Television Center.

"I saw this TV set there at the center," Robinson said. "They were showing the 100-meters."

At first, he said, they thought the telecast was a taped version of the morning rounds. But an ABC monitor control man informed them it was live.

"ABC gave us a car so we could get to the stadium," he said. They sped away but when they arrived, Hart's and Robinson's heats had been run. Taylor only had time to jump out of his warmups, fasten on his track shoes and make it to the starting block for the fifth heat.

Taylor came in at 10.2 behind Russian speedster Valary Borzov who broke the wire at 10.1.

"I'd never had trouble with schedules before," Robinson said.

"If he had let me have my own schedule, I would have been there," Robinson stated.

Robinson said he has doubts that he'll run in the 21st Olympiad to be held in 1976.

"That's a long time off; I'll be 24-years-old then and will have graduated and found a job."

The wiry Robinson, however believes he will have the opportunity to run against Russian gold medal winner Borzov.

"I'm going out for the Pan African team and Borzov will probably be at the trials next summer in Ghana," he said.

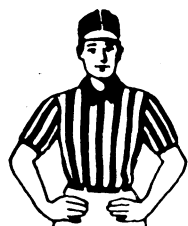

Yes, Robinson believes he can beat the Russian, and could have if he'd had the chance to run in Munich.

With the fate of his own gold medal hopes, the questionable decision by officials in several events, and the tragedy that befell the Israele team, there was little enjoyment in the Olympics for Robinson.

Among those things he did find satisfying, however, were the travel (his first time outside the U.S.) in Norway and Italy during the Olympic games.
