“Honoring Cherished Traditions, Anticipating Unlimited Horizons”
The Seventh President
Dr. Walter L. Smith

Dr. Walter L. Smith will be inaugurated today as the seventh permanent president of Florida A&M University.

Dr. Smith was appointed to the position on August 11, 1977 by the Florida Board of Regents, and he assumed the presidency on September 1.

A true son of Florida A&M, Dr. Smith spent much of his youth in Tallahassee in the home of his grandfather just south of the campus, and he earned two degrees from the institution—the Bachelor of Arts in biology and chemistry, and the Master of Education in administration and supervision. Additionally, Dr. Smith served as assistant to the dean of FAMU’s School of Education from February 1972, through January 1973.

Dr. Smith is proud of his FAMU connections and sees them as a basis for the very diverse educational and professional background that paved his path to the presidency of his alma mater.

In addition to earning the doctorate in higher education administration from Florida State University in 1974, Dr. Smith has received extensive specialized preparation. He completed specialized training in Improving Teacher Competencies at the Northwest Regional Education Laboratories, Portland, Oregon, and earned a certificate in African Culture and History at the African universities of Legon and Ibadan. He received additional specialized training as a graduate of the Educational Training Consultants Program of the Institute for Applied Behavioral Science, Bethel, Maine, and collective bargaining at the University of Chicago’s Center for Continuing Education. Dr. Smith also has studied law at the Woodrow Wilson College of Law, Atlanta, Georgia.

A military veteran, Dr. Smith is also a graduate of the U.S. Army Leadership Academy at Fort Lee, Virginia.

Among his diverse work experiences are positions as a teacher of chemistry and biology in Tampa, management trainee for IBM, provost and chief negotiator for Hillsborough Community College in Tampa, and executive with the Florida and National Education Associations.

Dr. Smith is credited with establishing the first statewide center for human relations in Florida under sponsorship of the Florida Education Association. The FEA presented him its leadership award in human relations in 1973. He has published and edited several papers and other works, and holds membership in Phi Delta Kappa. His other affiliations and memberships include the National Council on Research and Development, the Board of Education Advisors of the Permanent Charity Foundation, and the board of directors of the Council of Black American Affairs.

He has served as court appointee of the Citywide Coordinating Council of Boston, Massachusetts, and as Governor’s appointee on the Post-Secondary Education Commission of Massachusetts.

Dr. Smith is married to the former Jeraldine Williams of Tampa, and they have four children, John, Andre’, Salesia, and Walter, II.
WALTER LEE SMITH
Seventh President
FLORIDA AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL UNIVERSITY
FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY was established by constitutional provision and legislative enactment in 1887 as the Colored Normal School. It became a university on September 1, 1953 as a result of a bill passed by the State Legislature on April 28.

The University is divided into seven schools and colleges—the College of Education, College of Humanities and Social Sciences, College of Science and Technology, School of Architecture, School of Business and Industry, School of Nursing, and School of Pharmacy. In addition, FAMU has 11 academic and related service functions—Academic Computer Services; Basic Studies; Continuing Education, Evening and Weekend College; Cooperative Education; Graduate Studies; Honors Program; Instructional Media Center; Libraries; Sponsored Research; Summer Quarter; and Test Service Bureau.

The spacious campus is spread over an area of 404 acres. The main campus is located on the highest of seven hills in the State Capital City of Tallahassee.

The campus is made very picturesque by massive oaks, broad, green lawns, beautiful tropical shrubbery, red brick buildings, and well-placed concrete walks. The location and atmosphere are most ideal for an educational institution. It is a Land Grant institution and one of Florida's nine state-assisted universities.

The University holds membership in all of the leading accrediting and professional agencies, including full membership in the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. A chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, a professional fraternity for men in education, was established in 1964. The University was admitted to membership in the American Association of University Women in 1959.

The University went on year-round operation with the trimester system in 1963-64, and changed again to the quarter system in 1967-68.

Dr. Walter L. Smith became the seventh permanent president on September 1, 1977. There have been three acting presidents.

In 1970, by authorization of the Board of Regents, FAMU became the first and only university in the state to offer a major in Afro-American Studies.

Several projects have been either recently completed or are currently under way for the continued improvement of the University's physical plant. Foremost among these is the recent completion of a multi-million dollar women's apartment complex. More recently the University Commons and the central library both have undergone extensive renovation. Also, a $2 million building to house the School of Pharmacy was completed and occupied.

The validity of the investment in physical expansion and development has been justified by a significant record of educational growth reflected in the development of educational programs, the increase in student enrollment, and a corresponding increase in staff.

The necessity to expand the offerings of the University has generally coincided with the physical expansion.

Under the leadership of Dr. Smith, FAMU enters a new era, and the University takes on added significance as it meets the educational needs of its students and continues to move forward in giant strides as an institution of higher learning.

ALMA MATER

College of love and charity
We gather 'round thy noble shrine;
We lift our voice in praise to thee,
And ask a blessing all divine.

Chorus
FAM-U! FAM-U! I love thee!
I'll fight and win what'er the battle be.
The Orange and the Green thy Sons shall e'er defend
And loyal to thy voice of love attend
FAM-U! FAM-U! FAM-U! I love thee!

On gridiron, diamond track and field,
Thy sons the vict'ry never yield,—
And while they tread a broader life
Thy love shall stay them in the strife.

Chorus

God ever keep us true to thee;
Thy faith that truth shall make men free,
Shall guide thy loyal sons aright
And fend them thru' the skeptic night.

Chorus
