

FLORIDA A&M UNIVERSITY
LIBRARIES

Florida A&M University Scholarly Exchange (FAMUSE)

Works Submission Agreement *

The Florida A&M Scholarly Exchange (FAMUSE) is an open-access repository maintained by the Florida A&M University Libraries to showcase, preserve, and provide access to the scholarly and creative work produced by the FAMU community. For more information, email alivn.lee@famu.edu.

Please initial one of the following options:

BD I agree to grant University Libraries a non-exclusive license to provide online open access to my submitted scholarly/creative work via FAMUSE. You retain all copyright in your work, but you give us permission to make it available online for anyone to read and to preserve it in the digital/institutional repository.

_____ I agree to grant University Libraries a non-exclusive license to provide limited access to my scholarly/creative work via FAMUSE. You retain all copyright in your work but give us permission to make it available to users logged in to University Libraries network, and to preserve it in the digital/institutional repository. The public abstract and the title of your work will be visible online for anyone to see, but your full work will only be available to the FAMU community.

_____ I would like to opt out and not have this work available in the repository.

Date: _____

10/28/2021

Signature: _____

Boalby Davis